

MUNICIPAL GRANT POLICIES 2016

Please be advised that Council of the R.M. of St. Clements has adopted new policies regarding granting of monies to community organizations and groups.

Policy # 410 – Grants & Memberships to Non-Reporting Entities

A non-reporting entity (NRE) is one where the municipality does not control the financial and operating policies of the organization but the organization has a narrow membership base and a mission to provide certain services to municipal residents. A council member may or may not be appointed to the governing board of the organization on a case by case basis. This policy also covers municipal memberships.

Policy #411 – Grants - Donations

Public grants to support volunteers fundraising initiatives for a worthy cause.

Policy #412 – Community Activity Sponsorship Grants

Public grants for special events and festivals offering social and economic benefits to the Municipality, these events are generally organized by volunteers for non-profit organizations.

Policy # 413 – Annual Recreation Service Provider Operations Grant

A Recreation Service Provider Operations Grant is only available to incorporated non-profit organizations having the primary purpose of providing services to the residents of St. Clements.

Policy # 414 – Project Grants

Public grants for recreational and cultural infrastructure, may support new projects and infrastructure maintenance.

Please review the policies in full and ensure any application you provide for Council review includes all required information.

Applications can be forwarded to the Municipality in person at our Municipal Office, via fax to [204] 482-3098, or via email to info@rmofstclements.com.

If you have any questions or concerns please feel free to contact our office.

Thank you,
